

Monthly Electricity Report

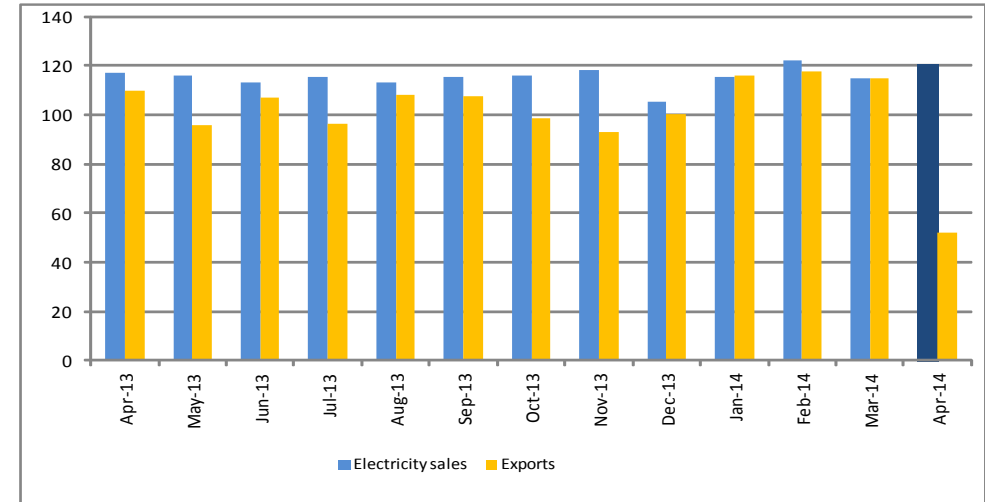

Chart 1: Electricity Total Sales Index (Respective Month 2010 = 100)

The electricity sales composite index (ESCI) consists of domestic and export sales. The index showed a mixed up- and downward trend for the rest of 2013, however, an upward trend is shown in the first two months of 2014. The index increased to 119 in April 2014 from 115 in March 2014. In comparison with the corresponding month, it is slightly above by two basis point.

The electricity sales decreased in terms of mega watts hour in April 2014 from 264 186 MWh in March 2014 to 258 185 MWh. Comparing to the corresponding month of April 2013, it increased by 3516 MWh.

Chart 2: Electricity Sales Sub-Sectors Index (Respective Month 2008=100)

In terms of the subsector's performances, the domestic electricity sales index of 121 for April 2014 is above the previous month of March 2014 by 6 basis points and also above the corresponding month of April 2013 by 4 basis point.

On the other hand, the export index in April 2014 at 52 decreased by 63 basis point when compared to the previous month of March 2014 at 115, but was below the corresponding month of April 2013 with an index of 110.

